

Shades Of John Paul Jones...

Wondering what to name your new baby? If your last name is Jones, think twice before naming junior "John Paul Jones."

Take it from one who knows.

John Paul Jones, of 2610 Dalemead, has had his share of humorous and harrowing experiences.

To begin with the name has been perpetuated for four generations in his family. He does not think that there is any relationship, however, between any members of his family and THE John Paul Jones.

A name like his has caused embarrassment more than once. Merchants have cast many a skeptical eye at JPJ upon receiving a check bearing his signature.

County Slates Hills Zone Hearing Fri.

Residents of the Palos Verdes and Rolling Hills area are expected to be out full force Friday when they will appear before the County Regional Planning Commission in Los Angeles on the master zoning plan issue involving uninhabited land in the Rolling Hills area.

This is the same land presently proposed for annexation to Torrance.

Developers of the area, the Rancho Palos Verdes Corp., have approached both Torrance and the County with their master zoning plan, trying to get the approval of one or the other.

Residents of the Hills area are expected to insist that lot size be considerably larger than the 7000 square foot minimum proposed for part of the area by the developers.

The Commission has proposed 9000 square foot minimum lot sizes. The hearing is slated for 9:30 a.m. Friday, in Room 501 of the Hall of Records, Los Angeles.

Three of five tract maps submitted to the Planning Commission Tuesday were approved, it was learned. They are all in the vicinity of Montemalaga rd. and Palos Verdes Dr. North.

Sme 68 Seventh-Day Adventist churches in Los Angeles, Santa Barbara, and Ventura counties are completing a drive for polio funds from members this week. The Torrance Seventh-Day Adventist church, 1610 Acacia avenue, was one of the participating churches.

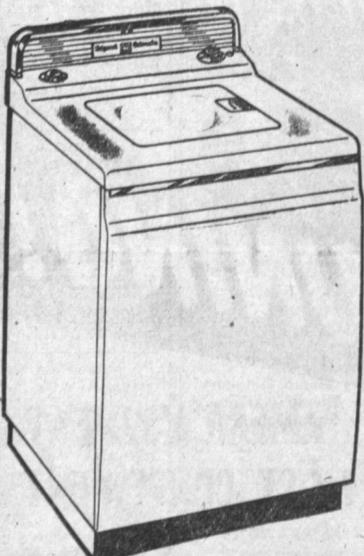

Pictures of the lost Inca city of Machu Picchu will highlight an illustrated lecture entitled "Around South America" at El Camino college Wednesday, February 23, at 8 p.m., in Room 8 of the Administration building. The event is open to the public free of charge.
